

FTC Policies – 2023

The Florida Theatre Conference strives to make each Festival a rewarding, educational, and artistic experience for all who attend. To ensure a quality experience for individuals, groups, organizations, and guests - the Board of Directors has adopted the policies listed below.

Registration:

- This completed registration form must be received in the FTC office by October 15th. We will accept late registrations through October 22nd - however, an automatic late penalty will be assessed.
  - Registration for One Acts in the High School and Middle School Divisions are not guaranteed if submitted late.
- All monies paid to the Festival are non-refundable.
- If in need of additional please email your division chair which can be found on the FTC website at flatheatre.org

Snail Mail:

Florida Theatre Conference
210 Cypress Gardens Blvd
Winter Haven, FL 33880

Policies:

- Membership is granted to all groups, organizations and individuals who register for an FTC event.
- All members are eligible to participate in all Conference events (performances, workshops,
- High Schools: Only one production per school may be submitted (One-Act Production - 45 minutes + 5 ,minutes for setup)
- Middle Schools: Up to two productions per school may be submitted (One-Act Production- 30 minutes)
- All productions must be performed under the direction of and through the school program.

- Schools are permitted to register students without submitting a production. This will allow interested students to participate in the college auditions and apply for scholarships.

- Individual student registration is not permitted. This includes High School, Middle School and Youth Theatre. Students must be registered with their school or organization.
- Home School students must be affiliated with a school theatre program to participate.

The Board of Directors of the Florida Theatre Conference has enacted these policies to help ensure that the Festival continues to provide you and your organization a quality theatre experience.